

MISSION STATEMENT AND DISCLAIMER

We, as the coaches and volunteers of Upper St. Clair Inline Hockey (USCIH), work hard to provide a fun, enriching, and competitive environment based upon skill building and teamwork. We make efforts to support each of the players and in return expect their full participation, hard work, and respect.

To ensure the success of our program, we need parents' support. Specifically, please make sure to fully inform your child about the expectations of proper and respectful conduct and good sportsmanship.

During practices, coaches are occupied and are not able to strictly supervise your children when they are otherwise outside of the hockey rink. Please again make sure to fully inform your children about with whom they should leave. We will certainly try to maintain a safe hockey environment, but injuries are inevitable. In this event, please make sure to provide coaches with your contact information. Also, please indicate if your child has special needs/conditions/allergies should you be unavailable and medical care is required.

We as the coaches welcome your input and support. There is never too much support we can receive from parents and if you have an interest in coaching, helping with arranging parties, managing the team, etc. please share. We will provide you the contact information for each coach and team manager before the season begins. Should you have questions please contact the USCIH President, Matt Guarino.

Most, if not all practices are held at the Bridgeville Hockeyplex. Please note that as coaches we are not responsible for the management or maintenance of the rink. Please remind your children of the need to be respectful to the Hockeyplex rules and facility, including the locker rooms.

Finally, please respect the time of the parent volunteers. Over the season, as they send you notices that require some sort of action or response, please do so as quickly as possible. Chasing down a small handful of parents who do not respond in a timely manner takes up a significant amount of additional time by our volunteer parents. That is time they could be spending with their family.
